

I want my Wisconsin law on telemarketing to remain strong. Our lives have been quiet because of the "no call list", and we wish for peace and quiet to continue. Telemarketers have no care for our private lives, and they are not concerned if they disrupt our sleep or our supper times. It is an "invasion of privacy" and should not be allowed.